

Learning Toolkit Institute

FUNDED BY THE MAX BELL FOUNDATION

ABRACADABRA, an early literacy tool, contains 32 alphabetic, fluency, comprehension and writing (spelling) activities linked to 17 digitized stories.

Institute participants must:

- ✓ Have the Learning Toolkit installed on their school board server
- ✓ Be willing to use the learning tools in their schools and become Learning Toolkit trainers
- ✓ Provide at least three names of future users of the Learning Toolkit they are willing to train
- ✓ Have the support of their principal and/or supervisor in order to cover the expenses related to attending the institute (release, participation and travel)

The Centre for the Study of Learning and Performance (CSLP) is inviting English Language Arts, eLearning/ICT and Special Education consultants, as well as lead teachers to attend this two-day 2010 Learning Toolkit Institute. This training session will focus on two evidence-based tools within the Toolkit: ABRACADABRA: An Early Literacy Resource and ePEARL, an electronic portfolio. Participants will become certified Learning Toolkit trainers.

TRAIN THE TRAINER
OCTOBER 21 & 22, 2010

Vancouver School Board SD39

Institute participants will receive:

- ✓ Training binder + materials
- ✓ Complimentary breakfast & lunch
- ✓ Full ABRACADABRA classroom kit
- ✓ Learning Toolkit Trainer certification

TO REGISTER

Please go to the following link
<http://doe.concordia.ca/cslp/ICT-LTK.php>
for the registration form. Space is limited.

ePEARL is an electronic portfolio that supports the process of learning by encouraging goal setting, reflection, conferencing and continuous improvement through self-regulation.

For further information please contact :

We gratefully acknowledge the support of the following:
The Max Bell Foundation
The John Hardie Mitchell Family Foundation

Sue Wastie,
BC LTK Coordinator or 604-805-9632

Davina Davies—Institute Coordinator
Centre for the Study of Learning and Performance
Concordia University - LB 581,
1455 de Maisonneuve Blvd West,
Montreal, PQ, CANADA H3G 1M8,